FINAL FIGURES ON CASUALTIES IN THE WORLD WAR RELEASED

(The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3—Final figures on army casualties in the world war are contained in the annual report of Sergeant General Ireland made public today, showing 50,280 killed and 179,000 wounded.

The proportion of killed and wounded is about the same as in the Civil war although mortality from enemy wounds in that earlier war was only 9.26 per cent as compared with 15.6 per cent in the world war. The report still fails indicate the reported surgical and military statistics in the recent war had saved the lives of 2.12 per cent of all American soldiers wounded.

Of every 1,000 men sent to France 750 were admitted to hospitals as the result of battle casualties the report says, and nearly seven were out of every 1,000 died on the road of wounds. Infantry losses were heaviest, 22.6 out of every 1,000 men of that arm being wounded and 11.17 killed. The signal corps was next with 12.22 wounded and 1.31 killed per 1,000.

Deaths from wounds totalled 35,521 or slightly more than six per cent while 53,261 of the wounded or 167 per cent were returned to duty. The remainder have doubtless been on treatment or discharged. Disease totals were by far the most deadly. The report said, adding that of American soldiers but both arms and both legs or both eyes and one other member, Europe lost more than 1,000 men for each one lost in battle. IT CAME WAS WEEK

By EDWARD W. THERRY

(Newspaper Enterprise Association)

CHICAGO, Dec. 7.—The new Solomon of newspaper business, powers of power—Chairman Frank Arthur Harding—is being read to the Chicago police department.

Chicago has had chiefs of police who were patriotists, professional performers and athletes. Now it is newspaper man, Charles C. Fitzmorris, to run any of 36 has the job of doing what four others failed to do—clean up crime.

"Absolute Authority"

"If Chicago wants racket-managed and Charlie Fitzmorris wants to clean up on crime," said a newspaper man who knew him when he started as a copy boy 20 years ago, "he'll make a Gateway job of it."

Mayor Thompson says Fitz is not a racket-worship by nature, but has per-endowed "absolute authority" and added:

"Fitz knows he is authorized to speak for me on such questions in my name."

Fitz is doing about on that basis. He has signed to be a "go-getter," first he "got" a few tons on the floor to transferring 500 to new fields. Right away after he took office he personally went out with a gun, organized two high robbery suspects and recovered $4,000 in loot.

Lines of Action

Here are some other things he did before he was a month old as chief:

Deposed 7 Detective Chief J. L. Mooney and made Lieutenant Hughes chief.

Started to drain new anti-frank laws, chief of which is a law making robbery with a gun punishable by imprisonment for life.

Started prosecuting delinquent policemen instead of using the old rope and whitewash of trial board charges.

Promised city politicians who had a wounded hood's corpse from a hospital it responding there so that town FOR per.

Initiated gambling raids that brought 457 arrests in one night.

Planned motorcycle squad to check skyrocketing mortality of motorists into exhibition.

Drafted plans for model system-wide street car safety week and for a parade for every crime committed from district captain down to patrolman.

The young police chief is short, stocky, healthy young and has a smile and a twinkling eye, and a firm hand with a club when needed.

Interested in Cops

"I don't believe in talking much," he says. "I believe in doing things. I'm willing to co-operate with anybody who can help the police department.

"My policy is: First, get the police in such mood, see they are better paid, better trained, organize the need of more police—and get them."

In 1920 Fitzmorris is a newspaper contact for hire, broke the world's record on a trip around the world. He showed such political strategy in Victor Hultstein's campaign for mayor that Hultstein made him his secretary in 1921. Though a Democrat, he was retained when Thompson became mayor in 1915.

Chief Fitzmorris has a wife and three children. He salary is $5000. Wood Thompson says he is "the best of a chief"—sure to be disliked by other chiefs because "crooks are getting out of Chicago while the going is cool."

"The first to break the high salary in history in the years forbidden was The Green Goat, 24 South Beach street. The 12-24."

"People should see more cops actively, under a progressive captain's leader.

"Why, I can remember when every lawful did the robbing for his family, and every mother cut her children's hair herself."

"So, and mother's son can remember how his late looked after mother cut through shipping at it!

But that is neither here nor there with what we started out to say, which is nothing else than—

Horace Beard, a well-known painter (not an artist), of Toledo, O., saved his denial bill by doing his own work.

"I knocked out two teeth," he explains, "on a door and I soldered 'em back again."

He exhibited the soldered teeth as Exhibit A.

"They were the kind of teeth you can yank out of your mouth when you wish to (take) with them."

And Mrs. Horace D. Walker of Brooklyn wants a divorce because her husband threw his eye at her.

It happened to be an old glass eye he hasn't posted since he got a still better glass eye.)

Russia is to try a monarchist period after January 1.

The rest of the world will take to the same path immediately after the last of the Christmas shopping is done.

CATHOLIC CLERGY OF MEXICO MAKE ATTACK ON RADICAL ELEMENT

(The Associated Press)

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 7.—The Catholic clergy of Mexico which recently held an extended conference in Mexico City has just made public a pastoral letter which attacks radicalism. The newspapers announce that this is the beginning of an active campaign which the church has inaugurated.

The letter asserts that under and worldwide propaganda has become so aggressive in Mexico that "it is necessary to combat these with other means and for that reason an extended list of questions and answers are set forth.

The archbishop of Mexico, who is the head of the clergy in the republic, has given his sanction to the principles and instructions is given that all ranks in the church is united in this war. It will be extended first to Guatemala and then to other Central American republics.

One of the plans projected is defiant opposition in the organization of numerous societies of Catholic workmen.

HOLDING AND CUTTING

Holding movements and reduced acreage plans on the part of farmers both reached the stage where developments are to be feared.

Cotton farmers are holding their bales for increased prices and cotton interests are preaching an acreage reduction next year ranging from one-third to one-half.

Wheat growers are holding their wheat for $5 a bushel and talking of decreased production next year.

Ranchers are really carrying out their threats of curtailed production, the department of agriculture reports.

The nation as a whole welcomed a fall in prices. But, unfortunately, prices to the farmer fell far more than they have to the consumer. Crops made under the most expensive conditions in history suddenly declined below what the farmer called the production cost. As in many former years, the big drop came just in time to catch the grower at the marketing season.

There has long been speculation about what would happen if the farmer ever struck. He never has and probably never will. But such movements as the present campaign for crop holding and crop reduction may reach the stage where some of the effects of a farm strike will result.

For one thing, food prices may again be boosted, in which event the farmer would once more be a principal victim of resulting conditions.

There is enough money in the marketing of raw materials to pay the farmer his expenses and a fair profit for his investment and labor. But too much of this money is taken out as tolls on the long road from the farmer to the consumer. The real producer doesn't get it.

Legislation cannot control prices. But government bodies can help solve the problem of bringing the farmer more closely in touch with the market, and the market more closely in touch with the ultimate consumer. The work is a big one and will take time, and the need for beginning it is very great.

CRIME WAR PLANS

By EDWARD M. THIERAY
(Newspaper Enterprise Association.)

CHICAGO, Dec. 2—The new fashion of putting newspaper men in places of power—f-instance President-elect Harding—is being tried in the Chicago police department.

Chicago has had chiefs of police who were politicians, professional policemen and soldiers. Now a newspaper man, Charles C. Fitzmorrie, at the age of 38 has the job of doing what the others failed to do—clean up crime.

"Absolute Authority"

"If things aren't rubber-stamped and Charlie Fitzmorrie starts to clean up on crime," said a newspaper man who knew him when he started as a copy boy, 20 years ago, "he'll make a thorough job of it."

Mayor Thompson says Fitz is not a rubber stamp. In naming him, the mayor conferred "absolute authority" and added:

"No one is authorized to speak for me or ask you anything in my name."

Fitz is going ahead on that basis. He has started to be a "go-getter." First he "got" a few men on the force by transferring 500 to new fields. Eight days after he took office he personally went out with a gun, captured two bank robbery suspects and recovered $8,687 in loot.

Lines of Action

Here are some other things he did before he was a month old as chief:

Deposed Detective Chief J. L. Mooney and made Lieutenant Hughes chief.

Started to draft new anti-crook laws, chief of which is a law making robbery with a gun punishable by imprisonment for life.

Started suspending delinquent policemen instead of using the red tape and whitewash of trial board charges.

Punished six policemen who let a wounded bandit escape from a hospital by suspending them so that loses $160 pay.

Initiated gambling raids that brought 462 arrests in one night.

Planned motorcycle squad to check clockwork regularity of Saturday payroll robberies.

Drafted plans for merit system—merit marks for good work and demerits for every crime committed, from district captain down to patrolman.

The young police chief is short, stocky, boyishly young and has a smile and a twinkling eye, and a firm hand with a kid glove touch.

Interested in Cops

"I don't believe in talking much," he says. "I believe in doing things. I'm willing to co-operate with anybody who can help the police department.

"My policy is: First, get the police to work; second, see they are better paid; third, demonstrate the need of more police—and get them."

In 1909 Fitzmorris in a newspaper contest for boys, broke the world's record on a trip around the world. He showed such political strategy in Carter Harrison's campaign for mayor that Harrison made him his secretary in 1911. Though a Democrat, he was retained when Thompson became mayor in 1915.

Chief Fitzmorris has a wife and three children. His salary is $8000. Mayor Thompson says he is "a bird of a chief"—sure to be disliked in other cities because "crooks are getting out of Chicago while the going is good."

DAYTONA BEACH NEWS-JOURNAL

DAYTONA BEACH AND SEABREEZE, FLORIDA, FRIDAY, DEC. 3, 1926

MISS A. H. B. MAY BUYS THE PHARES APARTMENT HOUSE

Miss Alexandria H. B. May has purchased through R. L. Smith & Co. the F. H. Phares apartments at 9 and 11 Rectalor place.

These apartments were formerly known as the Wigton-Johnson apartments and were purchased by James T. Nelson last year from Mrs. Julia P. Johnson, the owner; Mr. Nelson then sold the apartments to Mr. Phares last fall, and as Mr. Phares has recently made arrangements to move to Ponce Park during most of the season, he did not have time to give the apartments his personal attention.

Miss May is at present residing at 12 Burke avenue, which she purchased through R. L. Smith & Co. some three years ago, but is expecting to make her home in the apartments where she can be on hand to attend to the renting and care of the apartments.

Miss May is of one of the old Lexington, Ky., families of that name and is a sister of Mrs. Fred E. Phares, who recently purchased through R. L. Smith & Co. the Ponce Park house known as the "Pacetti House," which she is fitting up and putting in nice shape for the accommodation of guests.

Wilbur Hanks and his nephew, Elmer Hanks, and J. C. Wright of Bristol, Vt., are expected here tomorrow to spend the winter at the most wonderful of beaches.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Cooper of Detroit, Mich., have arrived for the winter and are pleasantly located at 241 Ocean avenue. They are expecting as their guests tomorrow Mr. and Mrs. Lawson H. Cooper and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rutherford of Flint, Mich., who after a brief visit will proceed to Vero, where they are interested in fruit and nut growing.

H. C. Beebe is completing a residence for his personal use on Grandview avenue, between Butler street and Oakridge boulevard. It is a pretty bungalow and has fine commodious rooms and a bath. Mr. Beebe is personally looking after its construction. He has lived here for two years, coming here from Peoria, Ill., where he owned and conducted a factory which produced all kinds of inside finishing material for buildings. He is, therefore, right at home with his new job.

Contractor L. Z. Burdick is building a fine residence for C. A. Randall on the west side of Grandview avenue, between Duke and Earl streets. It is of the bungalow style of architecture and will have five good sized rooms besides a bath. It will probably be completed by the first of the year.

D. R. Beach is just finishing a complete and modern new home on Grandview avenue, near Oakridge boulevard. It has eight rooms and a bath and being of old Colonial architecture it is particularly attractive. It will be ready for occupancy about January 1st. James Mistretta is the contractor.

Mrs. Laura Arnheim's fine new residence on the corner of Grandview avenue and Oakridge boulevard is completed and she is now occupying it. It has about a dozen commodious rooms, is artistically arranged, modern in every particular and has a most unusual sun parlor, which has attracted the attention of all who have seen it. This is a very attractive home place.

SEABREEZE-DAYTONA BEACH SCHOOL ISSUED PLACE IN THE ACCREDITED LIST OF COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

Attendance May Reach 400 After Holiday Season

It is now a settled fact that the Daytona Beach-Seabreeze High school will hereafter be a member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

That is, that it will be placed on the list of accredited high schools, which means all its graduates beginning with the 1927 class will be admitted to any southern college without the requirement of any entrance examination.

"As a matter of fact," said Prof. R. J. Longstreet to a News representative, "I have already notified the principal office of this association at Atlanta to list our school for membership. While we have some important things to do before this step is entirely accomplished I feel there is not the slightest doubt but it will be done. In order to bring this all important move about we must have a four-year course of study in our high school; all of our high school instructors must be college graduates; we must have nine months of school; our laboratories and library must pass a certain minimum test; in order to provide for nine months of school we must have $1,000 additional money which must be raised by subscription from the school patrons. But we have a sound and progressive board of trustees, and I am assured that we will not fail in our plans, which have been carefully and conservatively matured, will not fail. The necessary money will be raised and before next June when it is necessary to have it. Already the board has spent about $2,500 above the ordinary quota for the year in making the necessary preparations to give our school this long desired boost in its standing among the high schools of Florida. We have a school that richly deserves the promotion it is to have. We have an excellent plant here, one that will rank with any place I know of similar in size. Our high school instructors are all college graduates, our library and laboratories have passed the necessary test, and this year we are going to have nine months of school. We are, therefore, about to reach our goal."

Mr. Longstreet graduated at Stetson university and afterward took his post-graduate degree at the famous Cambridge university of Cambridge, England. Of the other high school instructors, Prof. Frank Berger is a graduate of Stetson college, Miss Virginia Marrow of Winthrop college, North Carolina; Miss Louise DuPont, a college in Paris, France, and Miss Margaret Young of Stetson.

At the beginning of the present school year there were enrolled 192 students. Within a month this number was increased by 25, and within two months by 51 more. Mr. Longstreet is confident that by the holidays the enrollment will reach 400. On November 1st the enrollment by grades was: First, 24; second, 26; third, 31; fourth, 30; fifth, 31; sixth, 32; seventh, 21; eighth, 27; ninth, 15; tenth, 14; eleventh, 6; twelfth, 8.

This year's high school course consists of four years in English, two years in Latin; four years in mathematics; three years in history; two years in home economics (domestic science and sewing); three years in French. Besides three sciences are being taught: chemistry, physical geography and physics; also a course in sociology. In the grammar school special teachers are provided for the teaching of music, art, manual training and home economics.

All patrons of the school will doubtless regret to learn that Prof. Longstreet, who for the past two years has been instrumental in directing this fine educational institution of which the community is justified in having much pride, does not expect to come back after the close of the present school year. He likes it here very much and frankly says he would be pleased to return, but his two-year certificate expires next June and he is not inclined to take the necessary examination to renew it. He has certainly made good with the students, the trustees and the people, and he will be greatly missed. He is just at the age when he can be most active and effective in his work, but he has various opportunities to go elsewhere

Superintendent Longstreet says he has been given most excellent co-operation in his work here from the board of trustees, which is constituted of Harry A. Horn, J. E. Tomlinson and T. S. Hadley. A. J. Smith is the efficient and faithful janitor. Prof. Longstreet speaks in the highest praise of his entire organization and is much encouraged as to the prospects of the year's work.

Adds Equipment

Within a few days an important new equipment in the way of a very accurate weighing apparatus, known as an analytical "balance," has been added to the laboratory. It will weigh the smallest particle of sand, which will not weigh more than one ten-thousandth of a dram. Although very small it costs about $100.

Considerable new equipment for the playground department is being constructed by the manual training department and is about ready to be installed. It consists of two sets of twelve swings and two sets of twelve swings and two sets of twelve seesaws, twenty-four parts in all.

Girls Organizing Team

Just now a girls' basket ball team is being organized. Miss Katie Galvin has been chosen manager and Miss Alice Struthers, captain. Other probable members of the team are Misses Eunice Van Valzah, Kathleen Dunch, Joyce Odum, Eric Williams,

DUBLIN WOULD SELL PARAPHERNALIA FOR A CHARITIES FUND

(Over Associated Press.)

DUBLIN, Dec. 3.—Proposals have been made that the paraphernalia of the city of Dublin, left vacant by the departure of the royal family, be sold to provide funds for the support of charities. This is an outgrowth of the refusal of the Irish Free State government to take over the royal palace, which heretofore was utilized to support the city's charitable institutions.

One of the articles, part of which has been proposed for the auction block, is the city's coach. The royal coach, which it is said was a State failure as a plaything for the several thousand the war cost, was purchased by Lord Powerscourt, but he has suggested that the State re-sell and the proceeds be devoted to keeping open the Phoenix Park, which is the recreation ground of the city's poor. The coachmaker had just completed an elaborate and costly repair job on the coach when the government withdrew.

A State Ball Committee, of which Lady Glenavy is chairman, would like to sell the furniture and other paraphernalia of the King's Hall and their representatives at present in the Mansion House of City Hall, to be sold at auction and that the money be used to pay the salaries of employees of the city council.

Several of the pictures proposed to be sold are good examples of old masters.

EUREKA-GREEK CHINESE COMPANY

Myrtle Ave. McCrory Bldg. Daytona, Fla.

By Edith May

This is my last week at the theatre. I am not sorry, although I am glad of the experience it has been.

I came straight from a country town to the most sophisticated spot on earth. The corner of Broadway and Forty-Second St., New York—and from high school work and waiting on a shop, my occupation changed to the exhibition of myself behind the footlights.

Well—it has not hurt me.

It has not helped me greatly either, except that everything we can learn about the world we live in helps us. Sometimes it helps us to know what we do not want to do.

I realize that thousands of girls would give their very souls for the opportunity I've had. I suppose almost every girl in the world has longed to go on the stage. I do not wish to discourage such girls. That is—not altogether. But stagework, like any other, is suited to some temperaments and not to others.

Back-Stage Views

It is not so much the work on the stage that affected me one way or the other. It is the atmosphere backstage—the ways and habits of thought and the unwholesome ambitions that the nice girl shrinks to fall into.

I think if I was in the chorus 20 years I would never get used to the viewpoint of most of the girls I see there.

I won't say all, of course. But I am convinced not many girls can long keep their pure ideals of life if they stay in the environment of "the show shop."

The greatest thrill I have had out of it is the experience of sending home some money to mother. I shall never forget the joy I had, standing at the post-office buying that money order. So number among a host of things I did will ever get a deeper thrill than I did out of that or a greater sense of triumph.

I was not sorry I hadn't taught algebra with the money, as one of the girls asked me.

"Buy Some Sweet Stuff"

"Go on, Edie," she said, looking contemptuously at the wife-and-the-baby-some-day-I'll-have-a-home-and-children-of-my-own-look-in-the-shop-window-and-see-the-dresses-I-can't-afford-to-buy-and-the-hats-I-can't-wear-and-the-shoes-that-pinch-my-feet-and-the-jewelry-I-can't-afford-to-wear-and-the-perfume-I-can't-afford-to-smell-and-the-candy-I-can't-afford-to-eat-and-the-theatres-I-can't-afford-to-go-to-and-the-rich-men-I-can't-afford-to-know-and-the-swell-clubs-I-can't-afford-to-belong-to-and-the-motor-cars-I-can't-afford-to-ride-in-and-the-silk-underwear

Tickets which were purchased for last Saturday evening, when the affair was postponed, will be good for this evening, and additional tickets may be purchased at the door this evening.

The floor managers for the masquerade ball will be: H. B. Schulte, J. D. C. Morris, David Sholtz and J. L. Pepper.

The judges of costumes include, Mrs. M. L. Stanley, Mrs. C. M. Bingham, Mrs. W. E. Householder, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Arroyo, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Paris and O. E. Millican.

Judges for the most graceful dancing will be Mrs. J. C. Howard and Mrs. T. E. Fitzgerald.

No efforts have been spared in making this evening's affair one of the most delightful of the season, and it is expected that the Triple Cities will turn out in gala attire for the event.

Mrs. Mary Huston to Build New Home

Contractor Jake Espedahl today commenced the construction of one of the most handsome residences to be built in the city this winter, the new home to be that of Mrs. Mary Wilder Huston, on Live Oak avenue, immediately west of the large home at the corner of South Beach street, which she recently sold to J. J. Paris of New York.

The new Huston home will be constructed of stucco, two stories high, and will add considerably to the beautiful buildings on Live Oak. A large garage will also be built on the property, giving Mrs. Huston one of the best appointed homes in the city. ...nce.

Time Back Trip.

Forrest Lake, chairman of the state highway commission, stopped off in Daytona a short time Thursday evening, to confer with Secretary S. E. Conby of the Daytona Chamber of Commerce regarding the route between Volusia county and Bunnell, being delayed while driving from Jacksonville to his home in Sanford.

Mr. Lake stated that he had conferred with Chairman J. ... of the county commissioners regarding Mr. Reilly's plan for ... route north of Ormond, ... he would return to Daytona ... Tuesday to go more thoroughly into the matter.

Trouble over road matters at Bartow is taking him there at this time. Upon his return here next week the local good roads committee will meet with the chairman to decide definitely the routing of the Dixie Highway through the north Volusia section, to the satisfaction, it is hoped, of all concerned.

Ten Children, and No Picnic, Either

When Mr. and Mrs. Paul Richter and family drove into Daytona this morning from Lancaster County, Pa., on their way to Eustis, driving thru by car and camping on the way, the family circle might well have been taken for a Sunday school on a picnic, as Mr. and Mrs. Richter are the proud parents of no less than 10 children, the oldest 16 years of age and the youngest 15 months. There are no twins among them, seven boys and three girls making up the merry party.

Mr. and Mrs. Richter plan to make Florida their permanent home, and will attempt to secure a farm in the interior big enough to put the family to work.

They make a happy family circle, and have really enjoyed the trip from the north, although they report having encountered some terrible roads in South Carolina and Georgia.

Mrs. Wilmot Miller and daughter, Miss Anita Miller of Milwaukee, Wis., are guests of Mrs. Katherine Miller of the Comfort Shop, at the Miller apartments on North Palmetto avenue.

Gen. meeting of Elks' Band tonight at Casino Burgoyne will be the rendering of "The Victors Choir" by either a selection of street scene singers, or a selection of horns, the beautiful piece being one which Prof. Ruby Francis Powers has selected for the evening's musical program, which will be by far the greatest musical organization ever appearing in Daytona, the band to be composed of 50 pieces, in addition to the grand opera singers. Previous to this time an 18-piece band was the largest musical organization of the kind ever playing here.

Senator James E. Calkins, president of the Florida Senate, who will deliver the principal address of the evening, will arrive Sunday noon from the state capital, and will leave early Monday for Washington, to appear before the Interstate Commerce Commission, he having been called to Washington at the first of the week, so that his stay here will be shortened considerably.

Every effort is being made to take care of the several thousands who are expected to attend the Memorial Service Sunday evening, at which time the Elks, both local members and visiting brethren, will march to the casino in a body, from the clubhouse, meeting at 8 o'clock, the service to commence at 8:30, following the close of all church services.

Because of the Triple Cities Musical Festival matinee Monday afternoon, the scheduled meeting of the Tourist club has been postponed from next Monday to Monday, Dec. 15, at which the organization of all tourists in the Triple Cities will be undertaken.

SUPREME COURT JUSTICES TO THE SPOTLIGHT

(Newspaper Enterprise Association)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Four of the judges of the Supreme Court are eligible to retire. At least three of them will most likely leave the bench during President-elect Harding's administration. Who will be their successors?

It is believed President Harding will appoint one Democrat, to succeed Senator John Knight Shields, Knoxville, Tenn.

Two others that are expected to be appointed as the vacancies occur are Charles Evans Hughes and William Howard Taft. Why Hughes and Taft are to be appointed is plain to every American. Hughes because the same faction that elected Harding pulled Hughes off the supreme bench to run for president in 1916 and Taft, because he is the most eminent Republican, a former president, always considered more fitted for the judiciary than for the executive, and last, but by no means least, because it is now the greatest ambition of Taft to get on the supreme bench.

Reasons for Shields.

But why would Harding, Republican, appoint Shields, a Democrat? For the following reasons:

To appease sun-partisan sentiment in the judiciary.

To reward Shields for his all in Tennessee.

Because the minds of Shields and Harding "run along together" on the League of Nations.

To favor Tennessee for having Harding carry the state, and with hope of keeping Tennessee in the Democratic column.

But why shouldn't Harding appoint a Republican from Tennessee to help keep Tennessee G. O. P.? For the reason that a Republican couldn't do it, and in Tennessee it is all the talk among both Democrats and Republicans that Shields may go to the supreme bench. While Shields didn't actively support Harding, he kept silent on Cox, and it is attributed largely to Shields's influence that Tennessee broke with the solid South. Shields was a bitter enemy of the League of Nations, and it was anti-League Democrats voting with Harding that lost the state for Cox.

Shields' work in Tennessee in the past also entitles him to reward by the Republicans. He broke with former Governor Patterson in 1918 and led the ticket for a "free and untrammeled judiciary" and, as a result, became chief justice of the supreme court of Tennessee. He also supported Ben Hooper on a fusion ticket.
